

Welcome to Bethel! We're glad you're here!

6TH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST • JULY 12, 2020

Welcome to our online worship gathering. As we explore new ways of gathering as the people of God, you are invited to use this bulletin as a devotional aid. Continue to check your email, the Bethel website, and the Bethel Facebook page for more ways to connect and encourage one another.

Staying Connected

One of the toughest things about living in this pandemic time is the lack of physical connection we can have as a congregation. There is a pretty steady group of folks who linger on Sunday mornings to chat or check-in for our Wednesday night fellowship time, but now's the time to take a moment to look around and see who might be missing.

We created a Contact Tree back in March, if you are needing more contact from Bethel, check in with Kelly, Alta, or Kary and they'll connect you to the person assigned to you. If you are a Lead on the Tree, be sure to check-in with your people this week. ☺

Finally, contact Lisa H. or Patrick if you have a suggestion for other ways we can stay in touch with members. Is there interest, for example, in small groups meeting for in-person, distanced conversation? What are other ways we can connect for fellowship, service, or support?

Welcome Home, Paul!

Today, and for the next 2 weeks, we are excited to welcome Paul Larson as our worship leader & preacher. Paul is a seminary student at United Lutheran Seminary and a long-time member of Bethel. In August he begins the final leg of his seminary journey, a year-long internship at Advent Lutheran Church in Westminster, Colorado.

Thank You to all who have volunteered to be readers in the coming months.

Today's readers are: Jeri Wartena, Tom Selke, and Lisa Kaufman-Chan

NEXT Sunday's readers are: Nancy Garman, Bruce Seiler, Jeff Dodge
