Welcome to our Special Guests - Tangled Blue

We are excited to have Joel & Aimée Pakan, otherwise known as Tangled Blue, join us for worship this morning. Joel & Aimée have a long history with Bethel as musicians and storytellers including providing music at various worship gatherings, leading a week-long inter-generational Summer event, and sharing leadership during the Luther500 Festival in Germany that some of us attended. They are also fresh out of United Lutheran Seminary where they have been studying alongside our own Paul Larson. Thank you, Aimée and Joel for worshipping with us today! ☺

Anti-racism Conversation Group

In the midst of wide-ranging nationwide marches, protests, and conversations, you are invited to consider joining with some of your Bethel friends for a time of exploration as we look at the legacy of racism in our nation and learn how we can “do the work” of becoming anti-racists. For more information contact Lisa Herlocker or simply join our Anti-Racist Conversation Group, FOR THIS WEEK ONLY, MONDAY, JUNE 29th at 7:00pm.
